When Jewish teenagers graduate high school, a year in Israel provides a foundation for their lives.

Now, unprecedented financial challenges due to Covid-19 are endangering the gap year experience.

Yeshivot and seminaries are at the heart of Torat Eretz Yisrael, and the future of these institutions is at stake.

As Jewish communities, we are responsible for safeguarding the Jewish future, Jewish identity and Jewish learning, from which we all benefit.

Mizrachi is leading the effort to bridge the financial gap, partnering with more than 40 Torah institutions.
